

Would you like to receive your monthly student loan statement via email?

eStatements are exactly the same statement you currently receive via mail, delivered to you electronically. The best news is, there is no additional charge for this convenient service.

A whole new level of convenience!

No more paper files, no more paper cuts. eStatements are the most convenient way to receive your monthly student loan statement. With the eStatements you can view and store all of your statements right on your computer. This means you can print them out or archive them for future use. Access them any time you want with just a click.

Access anywhere you go

No matter where you are, have fast and easy access to your student loan information. When away from home you'll be able to easily view your statement through our website without delay.

Speedy electronic delivery

You will receive an email from us each month as soon as your eStatement is ready for review – usually faster than you currently receive your statement in the mail. The email message will contain a link to your monthly statement. All you have to do is sign in, click, and your statement is there for you. Each statement will be available for 90 days after it is issued, so you'll also be able to view the last three months' statements.

Sign up today!

To receive your eStatement simply complete this form and drop it in the mail. We will follow up with a confirmation email letting you know your account has been set up for electronic statements.
